

THAT'S A WRAP!!!

Closing the outdoor season with a full line for the State Championship on a perfect day is the apex of Precision Pistol matches!! I guess there is no reason to schedule another season, we will never top that one. (Ok, I'll schedule another season, I know there are some folks that would like to make it to the next class)

Roddy and I had a little trouble coordinating and I had a software problem so this is later than I would like to be sending it out. My apologies.

What a field, there were 2 shooters in the 2600's, 3 in the 2500's and 5 in the 2400's! The rest of us mortals had a great chance to have a little bullseye talent rub off on us.

Jordan took the championship with his 2625-94x comfortably into the High Master range with Mel only a couple dozen points behind, congratulations for an excellent performance by both of you!

Roy was neck and neck with Craig in the NRA Distinguished Revolver match, but ultimately Craig won that one with a 274-3x! Roy was even closer to Dave in the Reeves match, but Dave managed a win with a 272-8x!

In the EIC 22 match Eric won with 262-5x only 3 points ahead of Simone and in the EIC Revolver match Jordan eked out a win at 349-6x with Chris only 1 point behind!

The points spread at the top was really tight all day. Super great showing by all and huge congratulations to Jordan, Craig, Dave and Eric!!

Roddy also mentioned that near the 25 yd target positions 2 and 3, was found a well used Ruger .22 MKIII, or MKIV, Magazine. If the owner will contact Roddy, he will get it to the owner.

Great year everyone, see you all in March, or maybe winter league first.
